RIVET THE LAST PACIFIC RAIL. BY GRORGE W. RUNGAY. Rivet the last Pucific rall, With a mirer hammer and golden natl; For over the hill and over the vale, The fron horse is swiftly coming. Along the prairies wild flowers awest, With red lips kise his flying feet,

Hall to the day and deed! Hall to the from steed! Hail to the fron rail! Hall to the West, all haill Now the rising and setting sun Shall me the East and West are one, Wherever the steed of steam shall run, The Union shall be one forever. State linked with State with from bunds, Hearts linked with hearts, and hand in ha Hall to our broad free lakes and lands! Hall to our free lands!

ever rivers that roll between, Piumed mountains of richest sheep, The steam horse tolls harder and har Now climbian the steep shalving rocks, Now up the Sierra Nevada. Hall to the plains below! Hall to the peaks of snow! Hall to the hammer estrokel Hall to the echoes wokel

From ocean to ocean the rail tune over the mountain and vals, Which scho with blows on the sail, Now heard by the list'ning races Hall to the pathway of narious here : It runs to-day through a hemisphere It shines on our hope-lighted faces, Hall to the age of steam!
